

Dear Mrs
Alfred Please, the newest you know!

under rock
paper

Richmond Green, Md.
R. 45 South Main St.
840324
Heber, Utah

THOMAS
LYON
FISHER

Funeral Rites Held For Thomas Fisher

THOMAS L. FISHER

Pioneer lumber yard operator Thomas Lyon Fisher, 94, died Saturday, Oct. 24, at his home, 126 West 200 South.

HE WAS owner of the Bountiful Lumber and Supply Company, Davis county's oldest retail store incorporated in 1892, which he had purchased in 1925. He worked in the lumber company until he was 84, when he retired.

Mr. Fisher managed a lumber yard in Rhyolite, Nev., from 1902 until 1906, when the 20,000 people moved away and the city became a ghost town.

HE ALSO operated lumberyards in Heber City, Logan and Richfield. In 1910 his yard in Richfield burned down. At this time he went to work for Telluride Light and Power Company where he worked for nine years. He was also a contractor, building many homes throughout Utah in the early part of the century.

HE WAS a justice of the peace when a young man and a notary public. Mr. Fisher was a member of the Emeritus Club of the University of Utah. He studied at Utah State and attended the LDS Business College.

Mr. Fisher was born on Nov. 13, 1875 in Bountiful, the son of John and Josephine R. Lyon Fisher. He married Josephine Ekman on Dec. 25, 1901 in Salt Lake City. Later, their marriage was solemnized in the Logan LDS Temple. She died on Sept. 3, 1968, after 66 and one-half years of married life.

HE IS survived by two sons and three daughters, Dr. Don L. Fisher, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mrs. John K. (Phyllis) Reese, Tucson, Ariz.; Wayne E., Mrs. E. I. (Norma) Alter, Mrs. Charles A. (Ardelle) Larsen, all Bountiful; 19 grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren.

Also surviving him are

